This day this case came on to be further heard on the papers formerly read, and on the report of J. R. Chambliss & Jabez W. Taylor on the docket of November Term 1856, to which no exception had been filed, and was argued by Bennett. He contended, where the land adopting and offering said report doth a judge, or do and demand that J. R. Chambliss, who is appointed a Commissioner for the purpose named on the Clerk of this Court, the lands awarded by H. H. Webb Esq. one for $197 ³²/₁₀₀ due 17th December 1856 and the other for $179 ⁹⁴/₁₀₀ due December 17th 1857, and collect the same, and when collected pay one half to Richard Bennett in his own right and the other half to Richard Bennett guardian to Caroline B. Bennett his infant dau^r who is required to lend out the land in good real or personal security and report to Court. and that the said Commissioner report to Court in order to a final decree.
