This day this cause came on to be finally heard on the papers formerly read, with report of Edward M. DePasqually under the decree of May term 1855, to which report no exceptions were filed and was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof the Court adopting and confirming said report doth adjudge, order and decree that John Buffin, Guardian of John C. Buffin and Caroline Buffin receive from the Clerk of this Court two coupon bonds of the Commonwealth of Virginia, one for the sum of $1000.00 redeemable May 1st 1887 dated Richmond, August 4th 1853 No 7228 & for $1000.00 redeemable May 1st 1887 and dated Richmond, August 4th 1853, No 5327, also a certificate of deposit of the Potomac Savings Fund Society for $533.41 dated April 30th 1857, which bonds & certificate were returned by Edward M. DePasqually with his report and are now filed in this cause. That the said Guardian hold the said bonds for the benefit of the said John C. Buffin and Caroline Buffin, collect the interest as it falls due and credit the amounts, as received into his Guardian account with his said wards. That he collect the certificate of deposit and loan out the same on good & sufficient security retain the bond for the benefit of his said wards & collect the interest annually & credit the amount of each interest in his Guardian account.

But this decree shall be suspended until the said John Buffin shall enter into bond with sufficient security payable to the Commonwealth of Virginia, in the Clerk's Office of this Court & before the Clerk in the penalty of $4000.00 conditioned faithfully to execute the duties hereby required.

And the Court doth further order that the remaining costs of this suit be paid by John Buffin, Guardian of John C. and Caroline Buffin out of the estate of his wards.
