

Mary A. Brown, Pleading Bureau, & Jacob Brown Effs against

This cause this day came on again to be heard in the proper family court being suggested by Counsel that since the institution of this suit the defendant John Brown hath obtained his full age, and it being further suggested that the defendant Maria Ann hath intermarried with John Faulkner since the last decree entered herein in motion of James Inaggett guardian ad litem to the said John and Edward Brown it is ordered that his name be discontinued in the subsequent proceedings as such guardian can defend and that this suit be hereafter prosecuted against the said John in his own proper person and against the said John Faulkner and wife Victoria; On consideration whereof, and on the argument of Counsel the Court doth further order and decree that the said John Brown and the said John Faulkner and wife Victoria Faulkner shall & upon and attested copy of this decree upon the aforesaid Savings Institution in the City of New York $1200 for the sum of One hundred and fourteen dollars and thirty six cents ($114.36 cents) that is to say the said amount to the said John and the said amount to the said Faulkner & wife parcel of the said sum deposited to the credit of this cause in said Institution on the 29th of May A.D. 1856. And for the further sum of four hundred and forty three dollars and sixty eight cents ($443.68 cents) to be paid to the said John and the like sum of $443.68 cents to the said Faulkner and wife, parcels of the sum deposited in said Institution on the 22nd day of April A.D. 1854 with such interest in each of the said sums to each of the said two parties directed to be paid as may be due thereon and as to the balance of the subject not herein disposed of the same is continued till the next term.