John J. Russell and his next friend and co-executors of Nathan M. Holloman dec'd of David, Samuel & Mary L. A. Russell, Chasman Diggs, Ann C. S. Diggs & A. Holloman & Robt Vick Defendants.

This cause came on this day to be argued upon the papers formerly read and in the answer I submitted for the complaint as to the Defendants, John J. Russell, individually & as Coof Nathan M. Holloman, Mary A. Holloman, Richard M. Vick, Chasman Diggs Ann C. S. Diggs and when the cause has been duly read they were failing to appear and plead, answer and demand to the said original and amended bills or the answers of the said Defendants John Jones of Mary L. A. Russell to the said amended bill with several exceptions thereto all of which said answers were signed by Counsel for Complaints whereas the Court doth adjudge and decree that the Defendant John J. Russell do stand out and answer of his own actions as Executor of Nathan M. Holloman dec'd before Commissioner Howard taking the amount thereof returned as far as it goes as personal estate and the Court doth adjudge and decree that the said Commissioner take a legat account showing among other the balance to be found due upon the said settlement is liable to destruction and in what proportion which account the said Commissioner is directed to prepare & report to the Court within months as he may deem pertinent or which may be required by the Court to be so stated.
