Julian J. Branch, Executor of Arthur H. Hollmann dec'd. Debt. Summe of $441.55

This cause this day came on again to be heard on the papers formerly read and on the report of the Commissioner made pursuant to decree entered herein in the term of May 1850, together with the supplemental statement marked "A" filed therein, to which report and statement an exception has been filed and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof the Court confirming the report and statement, doth adjudge, order and decree that Julian J. Branch, Executor of Arthur H. Hollmann dec'd pay to the defendant Lucy C. Hollmann the sum of $220.55 with interest on $210.55 from September 25, 1839 till paid and that the said Executor pay to Richard H. Voth the other sum with like interest. And the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree that the said Julian J. Branch do invest the sum of $441.55 in such securities as he may see fit by the said statement "A" to Lucy C. Poffers for life, with interest on $221.55 from the 25th of September 1839, at his discretion in the purchase of State Stock bearing an interest of six per cent, or in the purchase of a homestead, or a tract of land, for the use and benefit of the said Lucy C. Poffers for life, and after her death to be equally divided as directed by the will of the said A. H. Hollmann among his three children viz. John Poffers, James Poffers and Mary L. A. Poffers. And the said Julian J. Branch is directed to report his proceedings, under this decree to the Court. But as to so much of this decree as directs the investment aforesaid, the same is to be suspended until the said Julian J. Branch shall execute bond with sufficient security in the Clerk's Office of this Court, in the penalty of five hundred dollars conditioned well and faithfully to make the investment required by this decree.
