James McEnroe

against

Edwin B. Bond and Joseph H. Barnes Executors of Benjamin Williamson dec'd

Plff

vs

On the motion of James McEnroe who hath filed his bill, and made oath thereto, according to law, an injunction is awarded him, to stay until the further order of this Court, all proceedings on a judgment therein obtained on the day of 1851 by Edwin B. Bond and Joseph H. Barnes Executors of Benjamin Williamson dec'd for the sum of three hundred and sixty dollars with interest thereon from the 35th day of December 1845 till paid and the costs. But the effect of this injunction is to be suspended until the said James McEnroe shall enter into bond with one or more sufficient securities in the Clerk's Office in a penalty equal to double the amount recovered by the said judgment, with such conditions as the law requires; and until he shall also file with the Clerk, a return of all errors at law, in the said judgments and proceedings.

Ordered that the bond be adjourned till tomorrow morning, Edwin B. Bond.
