

each day, promised to sell in the premises the real estate with bill (and proceeds) unretained, which was done & to the infant defendants by their guardian James Beyond consisting of a tract lying in Southwestern County and on the south of the said 2d of persons of said section from the lower end with good personal security for the deferred payment leaving interest from the day of sale and the bill to be retained until the further order of the Court. Can the Court be required to require the proceeds to under the Deed to the Court?

But this sum shall be suspended until the said letter enters into force & formerly in the penalty of $1500.00 in the clerk's office of the Court, payable to the Commonwealth of Virginia as a fine fully to free from this and any other debar which may hereafter be rendered in this cause wherein she may be appointed to act

Advised that the land be exposed till sometime during March or April.