

Appleshild within ninety days from the date hereof deposit in one of the Savings Banks in the town of Vicksburg for the benefit of the infant plaintiff the sum of $425.18 and that thereon from the 21st August 1858 and till the certificate of deposit in the papers of this cause, and the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree that the said Commissioners W. B. Shands and W. L. Goodenall receive from the Clerk's office the three hundred and thirty seven dollars and report thereon to the Court and the said Benjamin Appleshild and collect the same and out of the proceeds thereof pay the costs of this suit which remaining unpaid they pay the fourth of the balance to the legal guardian of May Robinson and deposit the remainder there further than of in one of the Savings Banks in the town of Vicksburg for the benefit of the infant plaintiff and file the certificate of deposit in the papers of this cause. And the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree that the said John C. Appleshild within ninety days which adjudge with the will sanctioned of N. Simmons within ninety days from the date of this decree deposit in the said Savings Bank in the town of Vicksburg for the benefit of the infant plaintiff the sum of $1145.84 with and out of $1099.86 from the 18th June 1859, which said sum he was directed by the decree of this Court entered on the 11th May 1859, to pay to the guardian at law of John C. Appleshild, Benj. J. Appleshild, and Charles Appleshild, all infant plaintiff and that the said John C. Appleshild, administrator of Lucy J. Appleshild, deposit within the same time when specified the sum of $187.45 to wit with out from the 1st January 1859 in the said Savings Banks in the town of Vicksburg, which said amount he was directed by the said decree of the 11th May 1859 to pay to the guardian of the said infant plaintiff, and file certificates of deposit for the said several sums in the papers in this cause. And the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree that the said Commissioners W. B. Shands and W. L. Goodenall report their proceedings to Court and order to a final decree. And liberty is reserved to the plaintiff to ask hereafter for any decree against the survivors of the said Appleshild, as adjudge with the will sanctioned of the said Simmons and also as adjudge of the said Lucy J. Appleshild on the event this decree should be unavailing.

William H. James & John B. Whitehead merchants partners doing business under the name of J. H. & Co. of New York City against
Wm. H. Daugherty, admr. of Elijah Joyce, dec. and Lucy J. Joyce & Elizabeth Joyce Defts.
This cause came on this day to be again heard on the papers formerly read in the Report of Court Howard and pursuant to the decree of November Court 1858 to which report there is no exception and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof the Court doth confirm the said Report and doth adjudge, order & decree that Wm. H. Daugherty admr. of Elijah Joyce, dec. pay out and distribute the sum of $12,444.96 with interest at 6% per ann. from the 2nd day of May 1851, as follows: first, pay all costs of suit including an attorney fee of $500. to plaintiff & all fees to Defts & Deft's attorney. And then pay in full the several ordinary debts due by dec.