

came on to be heard on the Comptrolners bill taken for confessed as to the other defendants except O. McKeenbury on whom process had been duly served and they still failing to appear and answer and on the return of said McKeenbury and general replication thereto, and on exhibits filed with the said bill and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that a Commission of this Court take the following accounts -

1st An account of the transactions of Richmond F. Dillard & Charles L. Cooke as Executors of Mark T. Peto in taking any accounts heretofore made out by them & recorded as prima facie correct Subject to be discharged and satisfied.

2^d An account of the real estate of which Mark T. Peto died possessed and its appraisals & several values.

3^d An account showing the quantity, description and value (for simple and several) of the tract of land conveyed by the W. Peto wife of Walter P. Blunt to James W. Dillard & Son, dated 28 September 1839, & thence derived to as containing 20 1/2 acres more or less.

4th The account showing what came out of the rights that may have come to the hands of said James W. Dillard & Son or of O. McKeenbury & Son, under the deed of land referred to in said bill ought to have been paid to the debt reference to in said bill to which said deed is a security and note whereunto the same has been paid, and to the extent of any necessary, settle the accounts of such parties - and make what is due to be paid with any interest. Specially stated demand put in by himself or that any of the parties may require to be paid. And that he give notice of taking of said accounts by notice as the Court have here of Southampton County on some Court day & over a week for four weeks successively in the Christian Sun" or Newspaper published at Suffolk, and which shall be notice of the service of present notice on the parties.

Robert May Edwards & Mary Elizabeth Edwards infants of their own age who sue by Warren Edwards their next friend

against
William Edwards & William Edwards executors of W. V. Edwards dec'd

This cause came on this day to be heard on the bill taken for confessed as to the defendant William Edwards & one of the Executors of W. V. Edwards deceased on whom process had been duly served and he still failing to appear and plead answer and demur to the said bill, on the return of William Edwards the other Executor of W. V. Edwards deceased general replication thereto, and on exhibits filed and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that leave be granted to William Edwards to file his answer at any time within thirty days from the entry of this decree, that William Edwards and William Edwards settle an account of their transactions before one of the Commissioners of this Court who will take any joint and several accounts which they have heretofore settled in the County Court of Southampton as prima facie correct liable to be discharged and satisfied by any of the parties interested, and then said Commissioner will take an account of the kind, nature and value of the property and credits belonging to the estate of W. V. Edwards which have come into the custody and control of the said Executors and what disposition has been made thereof, what interest moneys have been made by any or either of them, and by what authority, showing either joint or several accounts as well best. Show the true condition of the estate, who is hereby directed to examine the same and settle the same and make report there of to the Court together with any further specially decreed pertinent by himself or which may be required by any of the parties to be stated.

William Vick an infant who sues by Leonard Cobb his next friend

against
Lucy M. Vick, & Samuel Vick, Richard Vick, Susan Vick & Mary Vick the joint and several infants of George and Anne their grandfather and late

By consent of parties this day this cause came on to be heard on the plaintiff's bill, answer of the infant, defence and replication thereto, depositions filed and was argued by Counsel. On the morning whereof the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that George and Anne who is hereby appointed a special Commissioner for that purpose, shall after having given at least twenty days