

Impugn Jordan against whom Rule was issued at the last Term of this Court returnable the day to show cause if any he could, why an attachment should not be issued against him for a certain contempt by him offered to us in not staying and having was this solemnly called by name and, whereupon no Motion of the plaintiffs by the counsel, the Court doth adjudge, Order and decree, That the Rule against the said Impugn Jordan is made absolute, and attachment is awarded against him returnable here at the first day of the next Term.

Sept. B. D. etc.

Plff.

In Chancery

against Forcestates Summ, administratrix of Mary E. Norton decd.

and H^c J. Norton, an Infant by J. Edwards his Guardian ad litem Sept

This cause came on this day again to be heard on the papers formerly read, on the Plaintiffs amended bill, on the bill taken for contempt as to the Defendants, Forcestates Summ, adm^r of Mary E. Norton decd. Samuel Wells administratrix of Sept. B. Norton decd. and Mary E. Norton, on the answer of Julia B. Dick, and Christopher Norton, an Infant by J. Edwards, her Guardian ad litem signed for that purpose, with general exceptions thereto by the plaintiffs, and the report of Commissioner Howard, and was argued by counsel, on the consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge, Order and decree, that the said report be confirmed and that Forcestates Summ, administratrix of Mary E. Norton pay to Sept. B. Dick, the sum of thirty three Dollars & seventy eight Cents with interest thereon from the 1st day of August 1867, and that unless Julia B. Dick, Mary E. Norton & Christopher Norton, or any one for them shall in twenty days pay to Sept. B. Dick, the sum of five hundred & seventy five Dollars & fifty five Cents, then that the Sheriff of said township after having given of being twenty days notice by public advertisement of the bondsmen on the immediate vicinity of said Norton, shall proceed to sell of the bondsmen of said Christopher Norton on some Sunday being day of public auction, to the highest bidder, the tract of land, containing One hundred & thirty eight acres of land, whereof Sept. B. Norton decd. seized and possessed, on the following terms to wit; Sufficient cash to defray the costs of this suit & expenses of sale, including a fee of fifty Dollars to the Plaintiffs counsel, and the balance of the purchased money, in a bond of twelve months taking from the purchaser to wit with approval being and retaining the title until all the purchased money shall have been paid, and return the said bond with a report of his proceedings in Order to be further done.

But this deed is intent subject to the provisions of an act passed the 2^d of March 1866, entitled an Act to stay the collection of Debt for a limited period, and the acts amendatory thereof.

Wells and Glens

Plff.

In Chancery

against
Sarah Glens

Sept.

This cause came on this day to be heard on the Plaintiffs bill, the validity filed and examination of witness and was argued by counsel, on the consideration whereof the Court being of opinion that the charge of adultery against the Defendant, Sarah Glens is fully proved, doth adjudge, Order and decree, that the Marriages be null and void.

14.90
50
15.40
20.90