

hair, and if any other person shall may be hereafter employed in this cause, touching the proceeds of the aforesaid lottery directed to be sold. This I am so greatly subject to the provisions of an act of the General Assembly of Virginia, passed March 23. 1788, entitled "an act to bring the collection of duties for a limited period."

Frank & Wm B. Barnes

Siding ^{at} Barney & Sarah & Sarah Barney Infant &c. Sept.

Sept. } In Chancery
Dec. }

This day they caused which has been recovered by consent of parties from the County Court of Northampton, as by like County Judgment in this County is caused to be heard on the paper forming writ, and as argued by Counsel, and it appearing that the Order Made of the November Term of the County Court of Northampton has been done on the parties, who shall fail to appear, and those caused, why the said Estate in the said and proceedings mentioned should not be made doct. & prodd. Order and Demand, that James Barnes, who is appointed a Commissioner for the purpose, do sell either publicly, or privately, the said Estate in the proceedings mentioned, to wit: A tract of two hundred and fifty acres of land with a first class thorn, situated near Baptists Chapel, formerly belonging to Jacob Barnes decd. On a credit until 1st January 1807, except each suffices into the pay costs of this writ & expenses of sales taking and security of the purchaser for the deferred payment and retaining the title until the purchase money is paid, and report his proceedings to this Court.

James H. Laughlin and Ann E. Laughlin his wife, and Henry Howell an infant who lives by James H. Laughlin, his next friend -

Joseph E. Warren administrator of Henry Howell decd. I ft.

1. Pluff. } Substratum
 2. Sft. }

This Cause came on this day again to be heard on the papers formerly read and the report of Commissioner Howard, to which we excepting have been filed. Made in pursuance to a I was entered at the November Term 1860 of this Court, and was argued by counsel, on Consideration whereof, and it appearing from the report of the said Commissioner that the Administrator Joseph E. Warren has invested all the funds in his hands belonging to Henry Howard's Estate in Confederate States Bonds, which was, amongst others, that he should not be charged with the same, the Judge ordered, Order and Injunction, that the said Joseph E. Warren, deliver up to Anna E. Darnborough the bond which he now holds against her for Two Hundred and Twenty two Dollars and Seventy two Cents, and that the Plaintiff's bill be dismissed, Joseph E. Warren paying the costs of this suit, and that this cause be removed from the Court.