This day this cause came on again to be heard on the papers formerly read and on the report of Commissioner Prattlee, made pursuant to a decreed order entered in this cause at the chambers from 1857, to which report no exceptions have been filed and was argued by counsel. We have determined whereof the Court confirming said report, doth adjudge, order and decree, that the balance due to the Administratrix to wit, Eight dollars and ten cents, together with the costs of this cause, be paid out of the personal property assigned to the widow, as heretofore directed, and the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree, that the ~~seignior~~ Legatee namely, Clara Atkinson, formerly Bailey, Raphaela Bailey, and Alice, Ada Bailey, upon a fair consideration of the will of the testator and the reports of the Commissioner in this cause and entitled to testimony by Doctors of this said bequest to them, beamed as appears by the record in this case, there appears to be no property out of which the said Legatee can be paid, in as much as the said ~~seignior~~ ^{specifically} demands to the testator's debt are not liable for the same upon a proper construction of said Will, and in as much as the personal subject assigned to the widow for life as aforesaid, upon her death is given to all the children of the Testator, she and her heirs alike, there remaining nothing further to be done, this Cause is removed from the docket.

Contributed J. Borthard who sues for himself and all other creditors of Miles S. Gray and who shall come in and bear their share of the costs of this suit.
