

Legal & the time of his death, and also an account of all the judgements that may have been recovered against said stocks & their profits.

David Rogers an Infant, who lives by W. B. Rogers his next friend. Siff.

against
Mary, et al. James wife of David M. Rogers dec'd. Joseph B. Rogers.
Robert also James and Hannah E. Rogers, Infants children of. Siff.
David M. Rogers.

This Cause this day came on to be heard on the papers formerly read & on the report of Commissioner Rogers upon payment to C. J. deane's bill of the bond entered at Teter, June 1847, and was argued by counsel, and consideration whereof the Judge has pronounced his verdict, and adjourned. Order by decree. That W. B. Rogers, who is hereby appointed C. J. deane's Commissioner for that purpose, procure the return of the bond, (which the Clerk of the Court is directed to send to him,) of Five hundred & fifty eight dollars & seventy cents, against Jas. F. Whitfield, John W.
Whitfield & Henry H. Conway, & receive the same to this Court.

James S. Thomas, & Julia M. his wife, formerly Siff. Siff.

against
Henry S. Thomas and the estate of John S. Siff. & Virginia Siff. Siff.

An Motion of Mr. Edwards is appointed for and then to discuss the merits of Virginia Siff, an Infant Defendant in the last & therefore to file his answer, and the Cause coming on to be heard on the bill of the Complainant which has been taken for complaint as to the Defendant (John S. Siff), the merits of the Defendant Defendant by the Defendant's addition, given in explanation thereof, Exhibit, and was argued by counsel, and consideration whereof the Judge did adjudge. Order by decree. That John S. Siff, administrator of John S. Siff, do, do under his hand and of the Commissioner of the Court, an account of his administration of the estate of John S. Siff.

And the Commissioner is directed to state such account & report the same to this Court, together with any receipts & payments, and to draw forth from himself, & which may be required to be so stated by motion of the parties.

Charles W. Lewis an Infant, who lives by Maria Moore his next friend. Siff.

against
Charles & David, widow of Abraham J. Davis & Abraham J. Davis an Infant. Siff.

This Cause this day came on to be again heard on the papers formerly read & on the report of Maria Moore Commissioner & was argued by counsel, and consideration whereof the Judge has pronounced his verdict, and adjourned. Order by decree. That William B. Rogers, who is hereby appointed C. J. deane's Commissioner for that purpose, procure to return the bond, (which the Clerk of the Court is directed to send to him,) of One hundred & seventy dollars & fifty cents, against Charles & David and William B. Rogers, & report the same to this Court.