

To Liza Sipe fifty nine dollars & forty cents - To Anne Sipe fifty seven dollars & forty four cents - To Bank of Virginia two hundred & twenty three dollars & fifty seven cents - To Bains & Co. thirty six dollars & twenty cents - To Bains & Co. eleven dollars & eighty six cents - To A. A. Howell twenty six dollars & sixty eight cents - To Morris & Spencebury, twenty three dollars & two cents - To Warren & Bellows, twenty two dollars & twenty three cents - To James Barnes Esq. of Jacob Barnes, eleven dollars & thirty four cents - To Wm. Stephens thirty three dollars & twenty cents - To R. H. Stephens twenty four dollars & twenty two cents - To Richard L. Bayard Esq. of June, Harpers, two hundred & forty dollars - To Co. Larnard, two hundred & twenty dollars - To Alfred J. Stephenson Esq. of Mary L. H. & Brown hundred & sixty dollars - To R. J. Bayard Esq. of Geo. West, thirty seven dollars - To Jolly Steel, seven dollars & eighty cents, ^{not} ^{delivered, but for the day, amount of purchase} Harpers, for his hands, subject to the Service, he is insufficient to pay all of said debts & interest in full, that thus the same be paid voluntarily, and that before such payments shall be made, he the said Miller will pay all debts that remain unpaid, including a few of two hundred dollars to John D. Wilby, attorney, for collecting the same due to John W. Deane & for defending, supervising & sending of E. C. Barrett, & for general services - and to Wm. Truitt atty, for services rendered, twenty five dollars, and makes reports to Court. And it is by Order that the Service of May Term 1849, be modified & amended to conform to this Service, as to the distribution of the assets, referred to. And whereas by paper filed of this day filed, it appears that Richard G. Combs, who was & jointly purchased with said James D. Whitcomb of the shill & appurtenances, doct. under Service of May Term 1846, has relinquished his right therein to said James D. Whitcomb, It is Ordered that the said be again to said James D.
Whitcomb for the same - And it appearing to the Court by deposit, & filed this day, that the bond of Oliver hundred & fifty three dollars & twenty five cents remains due by E. C. Barrett, E. C. Barrett, John D. Parker, & Bury R. Kimball, with interest on the same and amounts to eleven dollars & fifty three cents, from the 1st of Nov. 1849.
It is Ordered that the said last named parties pay to said Oliver Miller Sheriff & Commissioner of the said Sum of Oliver hundred & fifty three dollars & twenty five cents, with interest on the same and two hundred & eleven dollars & fifty three cents, paid from the 1st of Nov. 1849, to the account for by him under this Court, and that he execute issue for the same, and that said James Miller, make reports to Court. And it is further Ordered that William H. Daugherty, makes reports of any collections he may have received from his last report.

Ordered that the Court be adjourned till tomorrow morning for Collect -