

on Feb. 14, filed with said Bill, and no objections made to it. This day filed and was argued by counsel, on considerations whereof the Court doth adjudge, Order and decree, that the said report be confirmed, and it appearing to the Court that there is nothing further to be done in the Cause the same is ordered to be removed from the docket.

Arrived at Burroughs on report who dies by Thomas J. Burroughs his wife's heirs & Thomas J. Burroughs who lives in this case right. Substantive against John W. Burroughs & Thomas J. Burroughs, Infants, & Sister.

This day this Cause came on again to be heard on the papers formerly read, and the report of Thomas J. Burroughs his wife's heirs in pursuance of a Summons entered at the May Term 1849, of the Court and was argued by counsel, on considerations whereof the Court doth adjudge, Order and decree, that the said reports be confirmed, and it appearing to the Court that there is nothing further to be done in this Cause it doth further Order that the same be removed from the docket.

James H. Williams, administrator of the Estate of Edwin Williams, died. It is an act of the Estate of Susan Woolfson, died, who says in behalf of herself and all other creditors of the said Susan Woolfson who may come in and repay their part of the debt of this estate. Substantive James Ellis, Henry S. White, Margaret Wm. James D. Williams, Medora Williams, Sarah A. Leroy, Joseph L. Williams, E. D. Leroy & M. S. Leroy his wife.

On Motion, Arthur Whitley & Lucy his wife, Elizabeth Attkins, Thomas Attkins & Susan Channell, and Wm. J. Spence, Infants and to the Plaintiff's Bill, & the Plaintiff's Bill bearing two orders for copying a Bill as to the Infant and Margaret J. White & Margaret Wm. The Case came on to the Court on the answer of James D. Williams, Edwin Williams, Sarah A. Leroy, Joseph L. Williams, & E. D. Leroy & M. S. Leroy his wife, against the Plaintiff's Bill, & Elizabeth Attkins, Thomas Attkins & Susan Channell, & was argued by counsel, on considerations whereof the Court doth adjudge, Order & decree, that a Commission of this Court take an account of the transactions of James H. Williams, as administrator of Susan Woolfson's estate, taking as the basis of his accounts the separate accounts marked as Exhibits B. & C. filed in this Cause as former-fairly correct, liable to be impeached, and falsified by any party; also an account of the transactions of James H. Williams, as administrator of Edwin Williams, all private accounts and Commission reports to the Court, with any special Master, dissent judgments by himself, or required by the parties to be so decided; and the Court doth further Order & decree, that the Commission account & report this Court who are the heirs at law of Susan Woolfson died and their degree of relationship.