

At a Court held for the County of Loudoun at the Court House there, on Monday the 25th day of May 1870.

Present?

The Hon George Blair for Judge

James Miller, Sheriff & Comptroller against

Esse J. J. Blair
vs. J. J. Blair

E. C. Barrett, A. C. Barrett, George B. Barrett and James M. Barrett, Esqs. Complainants for the foregoing on the day of late, of properly return under execution.
This day came the Plaintiff by his attorney at it appearing to the Court that the Defendants have had legal notice of this return, they also attorney called that Court at, Complainants the Complainant and their attorneys, being present and in person, it is considered by the Court that the Plaintiff may have execution against the Defendants for the sum of dollars, the sum of the Court, but not the Court to him, in this, before, before. But the judgment is to be discharged by the payment of the sum of dollars and eighty and dollars and twenty three cents, with interest thereon to be computed after the date of this said return for amount from the 25th day of May 1870, till payment into the Court.

Remitted all. Wagoners,

(Plaintiff)

Agents
James C. Wagoners, James Wagoners, Richard A. Wagoners, John Wagoners, William James B. Wagoners, and Frank Wagoners, the last four infants by and R. Edwards, their Guardian ad litem.

This day the Court came in to do against them upon the papers formerly read and upon the Report of Comptroller Goods, to which report the exception may have been filed and read, argued by counsel. Upon consideration thereof the Court doth confirm the said report, and doth adjudge, Order and decree, that John Goods, Comptroller, do pay out of the sum of eight hundred and thirteen dollars & twenty eight cents, and in his hands the remaining costs of this Cause including an attorney fee of two hundred dollars, and distribute the various items, in equal proportions among the parties entitled to cost, to wit: Wagoners, W. C. Wagoners, James Wagoners, the legal Guardian of R. A. Wagoners, the legal Guardian of J. B. Wagoners, and the legal Guardian of Frank Wagoners. The said Comptroller to deliver the return to James Wagoners for the payment thereof directed to be made.

Geo. W. and James C. P. Jones,

Esse J.

Agents
John C. Jones, W. H. Briggs, George C. Whitford and George C. Jones, Esqs.
The last, having had notice for complaint as stated to all the Defendants; this day the Court came in to do against them the said and the said filed and read, argued by counsel. Upon consideration thereof, the Court doth adjudge, Order and decree, that the Comptroller of this Court take an account of the Plaintiff's judgment, and of all other judgments against the Defendants J. C. Jones, distinguishing them from others also an account of the amount and absolute value of the same taken in the last, having the Court read the Plaintiff's report, in which said account the said Jones has and which he purchased from J. J. Edwards. And having read the 1370

547

1472

9.1.1

448 87-60