

ends not people of the said Lord will within two years, satisfy the judgments against him he stand by law; and except said accounts be sent, as in Special Statutes, deemed judgments by himself, or required by either party to be so stated.

Joshua Barker, on at F. Barker, who due in behalf of Hemsworth, and all other Creditors of Edward J. Barker, dec'd. (Suff.)

Against
Thomas R. Carter son of Edward J. Barker, dec'd. - Heirs & James, executor of Edward J. Barker, Christian Barker and John R. Jones.

Subscribed
Suff.

Nothing further appearing, it is done in this Court, It is ordered by the Court that the debt be removed from the Probate.

At the next day, Hemsworth put in of himself, and Dr. J. Stephenson - who sue for himself and all other Creditors of the firm of Barker & Stephenson.
against

James R. Carter of Lincolnshire County and Comptroller of Dr. J. Stephenson and and Emily Stephenson. Defendants.

This Cause came on the day to be argued heard in the presence of the Court and in the presence of John R. Carter, Comptroller, who was present to the decree of the Court of the 18th 1847, to which report there is an exception and was argued by Counsel, the President being absent the Court doth confirm the said report, and doth adjudge, that and decree, that the proceedings had in the Cause be confirmed and made final, and binding between the parties, and that the Cause be removed from the Probate.

William Edwards who sue for himself and all the other Creditors of Edward W. Stephenson dec'd - who will come in and sue their proportion of the Costs of the said - (Suff.)

Against
Samuel L. Bates Sheriff of Lincolnshire and as such administrator of E. W. Stephenson dec'd - William C. Stephenson - (Suff.) James C. Stephenson (Suff.)

Subscribed

This day the Cause came on to be heard in the Plaintiff's side taken for Counsel to be all the defendants, Samuel L. Bates Sheriff & as such administrator of E. W. Stephenson, James C. Stephenson and James C. Stephenson, and Exhibits filed and was argued by Counsel, the President being absent, the Court doth adjudge, that and decree, that Samuel L. Bates Sheriff do accounts to his transacting as administrator of E. W. Stephenson before me of the Comptroller of the Court, who will also take an account of the debt outstanding against the defendants, as the better part of said E. W. Stephenson, and account of the estate and of the the same estate which he did sign and proposed, also report whether any of the said estate has been sold, and for how much, and who has received the proceeds thereof, and the said Comptroller