

each party paying their own costs

*Wm. B. F. Vane, who lives so humbly, and all the other children of Honor Harris live, who will come in and pay their part of the cost of the suit.
I am,*

See H. With late divorce of Southampton and as small advertisement sent of Mount Morris and of L. Harris, J. L. Harris lived in his own right and as partner with Harris and with Harris and Harris as a partner J. Harris and also his wife, Sarah Harris, Mary Harris, Edward Harris and Harris his wife, James E. Harris, J. L.
Harris and wife, Sarah H. Harris.

On the Motion of the Plaintiff by Counsel, It is Ordered that the Sheriff of the County be and he is to appear here on the first day of the next Term of this Court to show Cause (if any he can) why an attachment should not be issued against him for his Contempt in forbearing to return according to law. & Return Answering said writ from the Office of this Court in this Cause, Concerning said the Defendant J. H. Morris in his own right and as heir of Lewis Harris said to appear at the Court to be holden for this County at the first Monday in February 1874. He answer the writs of the Sheriff, as last aforesaid. And put in the first Office duly addressed to the Sheriff of this County, Va. by the Clerk of this Court, and the foregoing return filed.

Concluded that the land be assigned under mortgage bearing ten percent

Geo. F. Davis