

Hale
vs.
Hale &c

Plaintiff
Defendants

3 Subpoena

This day the Court came on to be further heard in the former pending and, and the Report of the Special Jurors made, 1871 and upon by Counsel, the Court considered and the Court confirmed the Report to which the Court has been filed, and upon the Court has been done that the Court reported by the said Hale &c. J. R. Nicholas, he declared from and binding. And nothing further appearing to be done in the Court, the Motion of the Plaintiff, it is ordered to be dismissed from the Court to his Cost.

James H. Story, son of John Story, Samuel Tangley and Henry H. Story, William Story, Henry Story, Henry Story, J. L. Story, Sheriff of Southampton and as such Sheriff of William Story of Southampton Story and of John Story.

Plaintiff

3 Subpoena

against
H. H. Dick, son of James H. Dick and

Defendant

This Court came on to be again heard in the former pending and, and the Report of the Special Jurors made, 1871 and upon
by Counsel, the Court considered and the Court confirmed the Report
to which the Court has been filed, and upon the Court has been done that the Court reported by the said H. H. Dick, J. R. Nicholas, he declared from and binding. And nothing further appearing
to be done in the Court, the Motion of the Plaintiff, it is ordered to be dismissed from the Court to his Cost.

Thomas' Exr.
vs.
Bryant

Plaintiff

Defendant

3 Subpoena

This day the Court came on to be further heard in the former pending
and, and the Report of the Special Jurors made, 1871 and upon
by Counsel, the Court considered and the Court confirmed the Report
to which the Court has been filed, and upon the Court has been done that the Court reported by the said Thomas' Exr., J. R. Nicholas, he declared from and binding. And nothing further appearing
to be done in the Court, the Motion of the Plaintiff, it is ordered to be dismissed from the Court to his Cost.

Thomas Bryant, (Color?)
vs.
Thomas Bryant, (Color?)

Plaintiff

Defendant

3 Subpoena

On Motion of the Plaintiff, It is ordered that the Court be dismissed from the Court to his Cost.