 read, and the petition of A. A. Turner, and Agents of the Executors and Sheriff return thereon, in the case of Annand Thomas vs. David St. Thomas Executors of A. A. Thomas dec'd of Bryggard & wife vs. the heirs of Thomas Ellis vs. the heirs of Richard Ellis vs. the same with Annand Ellis vs. the same and was argued by Counsel for the said Annand Thomas and the said said agents, before the court, that one of the heirs, in pursuance of the court's order a further account of the debts outstanding against the Estate of Nathan A. Thomas dec'd. and report the same together with any meeting specially, status deemed pertinent by himself or which might be required by any of the parties interested to be so stated; and it appearing by the Sheriff's return that the debts owed to the said heirs of the said dec'd in favor of Annand Thomas, Bryggard and wife and Thomas, Richard and Samuel Ellis vs.
 David St. Thomas as Executors of A. A. Thomas has proved unsatisfactory, and liberty having been reserved to the parties to present against the Estate of the Executors of A. A. Thomas
