

one dated July 1st 1871, and payable to J. R. Chambliss, Com. to which she is entitled in full, and that the said defendant John Harrison and his wife Mary, formerly Mary, or to their order two hundred pounds, to $2000 and to $11000, and certificate for one hundred thirty three dollars, and thirty three cents dated July 1st 1871, & payable to J. R. Chambliss, Com. and to which they are entitled in full - and as to all other matters this cause is continued.

Missouri St. Circuit

Standoff

against
 Richard H. Chambliss Clerk of Court etc. do
 for his own right, John H. Chambliss, W. L. Chambliss
 Mary St. Chambliss, Emma Chambliss, Lizzie Chambliss
 J. R. Chambliss & Richard Chambliss

Defendants

Missouri St. Circuit

Diff.

against
 William St. Chambliss

Diff.

the County Court of Southampton County

resolved the 20th

day of November 1871 -

James Chambliss came up to be heard regarding and also argued by himself, the Consideration whereby the Court doth adjudge, Order and decree that there is error in the decree of the County Court of Southampton, made on the day of

error in the decree of the said County Court of the day of made in the second above named Cause, in deciding that the said Missouri St. Chambliss is not entitled to the benefit of the Homestead and in the title of said late husband James H. Chambliss died - and this Court now proceeding to render said decree as ought to have been rendered by said County Court, doth adjudge, Order and decree, that the Right of Wm. Chambliss, Wm. St. Chambliss & James & Lizzie Chambliss said Missouri St. Chambliss in the right of said late husband be confirmed, and that the Report of Commissioner Wm. St. Chambliss under the name of James Chambliss of said County Court be confirmed. And the Court doth further adjudge, Order and decree that Wm. Chambliss, Wm. St. Chambliss, J. R. Chambliss & Wm. Chambliss any sum of whereby they are, proceed to the right of said Missouri St. Chambliss for himself and the Infant Children of said James H. Chambliss did - Two thousand dollars in value of such personal or other estate of said deceased to be delivered by him (if he should return to) as an part of the Homestead and Constitutional exemption in said estate to be held by them according to law. And the Court doth further adjudge, Order and decree, that Wm. W. Driggs Sheriff of said County proceed to sell the lands whereof the said James H. Chambliss did die and property, subject to the decree showing as back of (as above)

before the Court now done of Southampton County in said Court doth after giving thirty days notice by advertisement to the Court doth doth of said County and it shall now return public place in said County, or a Court of law then on some given, taking back as yet

Security from the said County Court doth from date and return the title to said Land to the Court doth of said County, in nothing which said money cash might be received to pay Cost of said and expenses of

Upon a writ of Supersedeas from
 a decree of the County Court of Southampton County
 rendered the 20th
 day of November 1871,
 before writ of Supersedeas
 from a decree of the County Court of Southampton County
 rendered the 20th

Costs of said Cause
 to be paid by
 the County Court

100

150

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100

100