

11. Witnessed and administrate of Stocking Bond do, who does for himself and all the other creditors of H. G. Bond do, who with me in and bear true faith of the ends of the said: Plaintiff 3

Richard C. Dwyer in his own right and as Administrator with the will annexed of A. H. Dwyer dec'd. Susan Dwyer, Second Wife is named.

C. H. Dwyer

That on the same came in to hand in the sheriff's file later by captioned as to the defendant Richard W. Bunge, late in our right the administrator with the annex of A. S. B. Bunge dec. James Bunge, and the annex of the agent defendant David Bunge by his guardian in law general application through the sheriff filed and was argued by counsel at said court on the Court doth adjudged order and docket that Richard W. Bunge settle on record of his administration of the estate of A. S. B. Bunge the report and of the commissioners of the Court who will file take an account of all the debts outstanding against the said estate and also an account of the real estate wherof the said A. S. B. Bunge did seized and possess his actual and annual report and report the said accounts together with any other matter lawfully stated demand pursuant by himself or which he may be required to so state by any of the parties interested.

Wm. Deane and Son, N. Harrison, late merchants and partners trading under the firm and style of Deane & Harrison

John Arch. J. S. Pender, Trustee of A. G. Curtis

That day the Court came out to be further heard on the papers formally read and the report of J. S. Pardon, Sheriff, filed down at 11 1/2, and was argued by Counsel Co. Consideration, during, the Court did express such report, no additional being filed to the same. And nothing further appearing necessary to be done in this court, it is ordered, to be removed from the docket.

Lucy M. Fish. who was by E. C. Dearborn her next friend.

Alcornoque

Leah B. Vick

This case has thus been heard on the Bill of Complaint, the Respondents answer, application for relief and objection and was argued by counsel. On consideration thereof the Court says, it appears that there is no legal ground for granting a decree in favor of the said plaintiffs, either now or hereafter, and that the Bill be dismissed the said Complaint for costs the legal costs of the said.

Matthew G. Anderson who says for himself and all other creditors of James R. McCall do:
against

James Nelson Administrator of the estate of James A. Williams dec'd. & others.

1815 May the court came on again to be heard in the before premises, and was argued by counsel. On consideration thereof and advice it has been represented to the court that the parties desire to pay the bond and to pay it without more because payable. Therefore the court doth adjudge now and doth that W. H. Briggs shuff the commission within the said bond the money in then court received by John H. Wright and others and falling due the 16th of October 1824 and either the same day pay the money not so directed by the decree of the Honourable Court 1823 and return the receipt along with the report to the court in order to a further decree and the said W. H. Briggs is hereby directed to make a deed to the purchaser with special warranty in the payment of all the purchase money.

Griffith & wife

11. 11. 11

Smile	others
-------	--------

(Signature)

This day the Court came on to be heard upon the papers, findings, view and the report of the Grand Jury, the report of the Grand Jury under the date of May, June 1873, to which report on exceptions have been filed and now request of counsel to be considered when the Court shall adjourn, and leave that the said report be and is hereby confirmed.