

Friday Morning, 1st December 1874.

Present.

The Hon George Selous, Judge

Samuel Wells Sheriff of Kentonham County, and as such administrator of the late will of the said Samuel Wells, do hereby certify against James Griggard against the will and mind of Isaac H. Davis decd.

L. W. Spencer & James M. Griggard administrators of the last will and testament of Isaac H. Davis decd.

This day the Court came again to be heard in the before mentioned and the same issues returned. Counsel for James M. Griggard and of Henry Griggard and also argued by Counsel for the said Samuel Wells and by Counsel for parties through their Counsel, the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that James M. Griggard and Henry Griggard do deliver up of the apote in his hands belonging to the estate of the said Samuel Griggard pay to Samuel Wells, late Sheriff of Kentonham and as such administrator of the late will and mind of the said Isaac H. Davis decd. the sum of Two Thousand and Twenty five dollars and fifty Cents ($2025.50) and the Costs of this Suit; and the Court doth further adjudge order and decree, that the said James M. Griggard execute as appraisers deliver to the said Samuel Wells, the said said Bond in the possession of his Executors to wit, the Bond of Angus Dea Jr. the Bond of the Delaware Rail Road Company and the Bond of J. M. Eggle, and the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree, that liberty be reserved to the Plaintiff to proceed against the Estate of L. W. Spencer and Robert Spencer the Executors of Henry Griggard in his Official Bond as administrator of Isaac
H. Davis late Sheriff this do hereby certify

J. D. Potter and others against

Jury

Subpoena

John Edwards and others

It appearing to the Court that the said John Edwards long dead of that 11th, Bridges has become his personal Representative in due course of law and that the Court has duly received by their Verdict as of their personal Representative come in to be heard on the before mentioned and as the Examinations of witnesses, and in the Report of John A. Kelly made pursuant to the Order of May Term 1874, of the Court is asked against them to the Effect, and was argued by Counsel, the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that the said John A. Kelly, Commissioner as appraisers receive of the Bank of the said John A. Kelly the sum of him to his leaving, except therefor the Certificate of Deposit of the Capital Stock Company for $3000.00 Three thousand and four dollars and four Cents, and collect the same and interest thereon, and together with the sum of One hundred and fifty Cents and eighty Cents due in said Kelly's hands as appraisers of the said said Kelly's estate to the said John A. Kelly of Forty dollars to said John A. Kelly of Forty dollars to the said John A. Kelly the sum of

Case 1874

25.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00

Case 1874

16.00