

The Salt Shovel reported is declared from B. Lindberg. And, to also other 24 others this case is continued.

James S. Thompson
again

Frederick

Book of Effingham (H. J. Biddle Jr. owner of H. J. Effingham died 1840) and a name for wife and George and Helen Effingham, Infant Dependents.
This day the Board have in it to further have on the papers formerly read in it Report of Board of Trustees of the State of the real estate questions in the Board of proceedings and was agreed by Council, on consideration thereof the Board confirming said Report, and adopting resolutions (H. J. Biddle Jr. died 1840, and and down, then Joseph D. Biddle Commissioner out of the State of (H. J. Biddle Jr.)
reported in his report arising from the State of Effingham's estate, payment to Effingham, the State of (H. J. Biddle Jr.) his part of said balance, and that he received the balance until the further Order of the Board, and by Council of parties the Board doth further agree, Order and down, that a Commission of the Board take an account of the assets and profits of Effingham's estate and the Land estate attached, from the day of James W. Effingham's death to the 15th day of November 1878, and report to Council. And by Council of parties the Board doth further agree, that a Commission of this Board take an account of the following dates against the State of H. J. Effingham and report the same to Council.

C^d. Boston notes due for Lining and all other Credits of P^y M^r. John D. Co.

Went to the office.

Agony

Personal Note Schaff of Quercus and Pinus Bp. are red

2. 18. 18

After they were before the Court as to be further shown in the papers formerly sent, and the Report of the Committee on the 15th, and after being by Counsel, the Court considered and gave exceptions being given to the Report the Court with judgment, Order and decree, that the same be confirmed and nothing further appearing excepting to show in the same, it is hereby so decreed from the Court.

Barthman

again

Barfleur

Phantoff

Deposited

This day the Grand Jurors came on to the foreman's house with papers from the acts, the Report of C. I. Bowdoin respecting the 1st and 2d July 35th 1794, and Statement "X" was again argued by (name), the Commissioner when the Court (conforming to the said Report, &c.) respectively being filed to the same, and adopting Statement "X" as the basis of their decision, did approve, Order was drawn for C. I. Bowdoin after paying the amount retained in the hands of Thomas by Statement "22" page 6. Also Bowdoin the sum of $42.33 with interest from July 27th 1814, C. I. Bowdoin cannot claim $42.33 with like interest, as Paul Bowdoin as his son $42.33 with like interest, to Samuel Bowdoin of $254.00 with like interest and retain for himself $254.00. And the said
C. I. Bowdoin as Commissioner will execute to Jas L. Bowdoin