In Chancery

This day the Court came on again to be heard in the papers formerly read and the Report of Commissioner Edgar Spaulding submitted to a second reading at the February Term 1874, of this Court, and the said Report is hereby confirmed, and it appearing to the Court from the said Report that a sale of the land is necessary, it doth further order that Elliott L. Strong who is hereby appointed special Commissioner for that purpose, shall after having given at least twenty days notice of the time and place of sale, by public advertisement at public auctions, and the immediate vicinity of the land, proceed to sell at public auction in some County Court (say at public auction, at the highest bidder, the two tracts of land whereof Daniel H. Coffey died seized and possessed two containing 83 acres and the other 41 acres, subject to the widow Mary J. Coffey dowry one acre following, to wit, sufficient land to pay the costs of this suit, and expenses of sale, including a fee of fifty dollars to William R. Shields the Plaintiffs Counsel, and the balance of the proceeds money on a credit of one, two, and three years, agree to some instrument bearing from the purchasing land with approved security, carrying interest from date returning the title until the further order of this Court, and return the said land along with his Report. But the said E. L. Strong shall not proceed
