Orphans Court
In Equity
Ditto v. Wm.

Plaintiff

Defendant

Wm. Channing

This cause came on this day to be again heard on the papers formerly read in the report of payments made by David Wells administrator of J. S. Catty and under the annual term of May term 1872 of the Court, and on final report of David Wells administrator of J. S. Catty this day filed, to which report there is no exception and was argued by Counsel. And considering whereof the Court doth confirm the said reports, and doth adjudge order and decree that the said David Wells administrator of J. S. Catty do pay and distribute the sum of One hundred and sixty four dollars and no cent, which appears to be in his hands by said final report as follows, first four and last ten being remain unpaid, and then pay the residue according to the several bequests of said J. S. Catty as reported by Commissioner Ogden in his report of 22nd of April 1872 and make report to Court, filing herewith proper vouchers for all payments hereunder.
