The Court will pursuant to adjournment
Decide
The Hon. George Poling Judge

Dandridge

against

Gillott's executors

Defendant

Mr. Channing

Plaintiff

This day this cause came on again to be heard in the papers formerly read and the report of Mr. Angus Sheriff made pursuant to a decree of the Debating term 1874 of the Court and to which except no exception had been filed and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge order and decree, that the said report be confirmed. And as it is represented that the purchaser of the land J. C. Gillott desires to pay his three loads of Four hundred and fifty six dollars and forty seven cents each which amount with due notice is further ordered that Mr. H. Briggs withdraw the same from the papers in this cause and collect there. And upon their payment make to the purchaser a deed to the land sold with special warranty and report his proceedings to Counsel in order to a further decree.
