

Thursday Morning, March the 4th 1875.
The Court met pursuant to adjournments -
Present.

The Hon^{ble} George Allen, Judge.

William Chawley, Wm H. Hopfield, and Alice his wife (the last named a minor and sued by her said husband as her next friend and he as her next friend - Emma Carril - Robert Thorp (a minor who sued by Joseph R. R. of her next friend).

Plaintiffs

Henry T. Boyant, Charles C. Boyant and James R. Boyant

Defendants

} In Chancery

This Court was again heard this day, as the papers previously read and the report of Commissioner Winsor this day filed by order of Court; and the Court confirming said report, did hereby adjudge, order and direct that the rights acquired by the said James R. Boyant under the deed executed to him by the said Commissioner Winsor be firm and stable. And there appearing nothing further ^{requiring} to be done in this suit the same is dismissed from the docket.

All matters and causes depending in this Court not yet determined disposed of and adjournment continued until the first day of the next Term.

Ordered That the Court do adjourn until the first day of its next Term.

Geo Allen.