This day this cause came on to be again heard on the papers formerly read on the bill of Wm. Lizzie, filed during the term and was argued by Council. On consideration whereof, and the Court adopting said report as the basis of the decree, doth adjudge, order and decree that B. F. Council after a bond approved of Special Commissioner for the purpose, after advertising the real estate on the premises mentioned by public notice posted at those or upon public places in the County of Southampton for twenty days express the same to sale at public auction upon the following terms, to wit, the party take the balance on a credit of twelve months, the purchaser to give Bond with approved security covering interest from day to date, and the date to be retained for the defense presently. But said Commissioner upon not finding to all vendors they demand, until he should have executed and filed in the Clerk's Office of this Court a Bond in the penalty of $200, with security to be approved by said Clerk, conditioned to faithfully execute their and any other duties in this Court, and said Bond upon which report of Court of his proceedings under the order.
