

Travis's Claim against Randolph

Plaintiff

Defendant

J. M. Channing

This day this cause came on to be again heard on the papers formerly read, and the report of Commissioner Briggs filed during the term and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof, no exceptions being filed to the said report, the Court with adjudge, order and decree that the same be confirmed, and as to all other matters this cause is continued.

Council

against Higley &c.

Plaintiff

Defendant

J. M. Channing

This day this cause came on to be further heard on the report of Commissioner Council filed April 15th 1846, and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof, no exceptions being filed to the said report, the Court with adjudge, order and decree that the same be confirmed, and also that the same be referred to the said Commissioner with notice to the said parties, and that the Commissioner with collect the cash payments, and take bill from the paymaster, according to terms of the said contract, and make report to Court.

W. H. Maynard, Co. S. officers and Frank Maynard partners in trade under name and style of W. H. Maynard & Co. S. officers

against
John Camp, W. H. Camp, John R. Kelly, Partners of Maynard
Channing and Parsons

J. M. Channing
J. M. Parsons

This day this cause came on to be heard, on the bill of the Complainants taken for Complaint as to the said Defendants, Exhibit filed, with general replication, and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof, the Court with adjudge, order and decree, that a Commissioner of the Court take the following accounts, to wit; an account of the plainiffs demand, and as other outstanding, indebtedness against John and W. H. Camp, whether by judgment, bill of lading or otherwise, with their privities. An account of the amount of absolute value of all the said bills taken from said John and William Camp, as noted by them, whether accounts, bills and Commissions were paid to Court, by cash or otherwise, whether by judgment, bill of lading, or otherwise, or whether they be required to be so paid, by any of the parties interested.

W. H. Maynard and Co. S. officers partners in trade under style of Maynard & Co. S. officers

against
John R. Kelly

John R. Kelly

This day this cause came on to be heard, on the bill of the Complainants taken for Complaint as to the said Defendant W. H. Camp, Exhibit filed, with general replication, and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof, the Court with adjudge, order and decree, that a Commissioner of the Court take the following accounts, to wit; an account of the plainiffs demand, and as other outstanding, indebtedness against John and W. H. Camp, whether by judgment or otherwise, against W. H. Camp, with their privities; an account of the amount and absolute value of all the said bills taken from said John and William Camp, as noted by them, whether accounts, bills and Commissions were paid to Court, by cash or otherwise, whether by judgment, bill of lading, or otherwise, or whether they be required to be so paid, by any of the parties interested.