

W.B. Lamb, in fact, is otherwise, which accounts the Board Commission will report a good, together with another writer, especially states, themed pertinent, of himself, or take it "not to regard into all states of any interested party

Speaks Admon against Pleasure

1844
 1844

This day the Court came in to the further trial in the foregoing matters, and the report of Humphreys & Briggs filed during the term, and was argued by Counsel. On consideration thereof, and the exceptions being filed to said Report, the Court doth require, before and during, which the person to be confessed, and leave a hereby granted writ, Briggs Administrator of Charles Bond and his assigns to appear at the next in which Court at 10 o'clock forenoon by said Bench to said Bench, at appearing to the Court for nothing further can be done with said Bench in this matter. And nothing further having appeared to be done in this Cause, it is ordered to be removed from the docket.

A. B. Ridley

Diff:

James Bond, R. F. Perkins (Truster), Jos. H. Perkins, Geo.
L. Perkins (Truster) and Winthrop, Cambridge & Boston.

20

The Court has heard Counsel in to the record in the Complaints to be which has been taken for Counsel as to all the Defendants, the Exhibits filed, with the general explanation thereto, and any argued by Counsel. On reconsideration thereof, the Court did deny. Counsel and demand that a Commission be appointed take the following account, to wit: An account of the Plaintiff's demand and all other understanding committed rights against James Beale, Defendant, against other provisions - the account of all the Beale Estate, owned in fee or otherwise, by James Beale, with its amount and abated value, of which account the Commission will report to Court. upon whichever report, specially stated demand pertaining to property, or of which Court is required to be stated, by any interested party. -
 "

To Paris Am & Eng

That day the Court went on to be further heard in the proper form, and the Report of Commissioners, submitted, directed to the Court by W. J. Tracy, was filed (Nov. 15th 1873) and was argued by Counsel; the Commissioner appeared, W. J. Tracy being filed to the Court Report, the Court took adjudge, later on decided, that the Court be continued, and further appearing Tracy, to be done in the Court, it is ordered to be removed from its docket, at the Court of the hearing of W. J. Tracy was.