

shall deemed pertinent by himself, or which may be required to be so stated, by either of the parties. And the Court doth further order, require, and decree, that the said Commissioner Goodenow, out of the funds in his hands herein directed to be paid to J. J. Hendon, the said J. J. Hendon, pay to the Commissioner of the said J. J. Hendon, his fee of thirty dollars.

Refused wife

against

James' Estate &c

Refused wife

against

James' Estate &c

Deft.

Deft.

Deft.

Deft.

In Chancery

In Chancery

This day three James came on again, to be heard in the foregoing matter, and did in the report of Commissioner of the said J. J. Hendon, made pursuant to the order of November Term 1876, of the following accounts to wit: account of and in by the executor of James' Estate from sale of real estate in Frederick County, account of Joseph D. Albright, an old bond, hundred Legacies of James' Estate, with the executors of said James' account of James' R. Hapgood, Legatee of James' Estate with the executors of said James' and account of the sale of James' Estate with the executors of said James', to the three first named of which said accounts no exceptions have been filed, and in regard to James' account, although the Court, Commissioner of the said report, to the three first named accounts, above stated, doth adjudge, order and decree, that the accounts of the Estate of James' with the executors of said James' last above named, be recommended to a Commissioner of the Court, who is directed by a certificate to do so, and also to take an account of the further transactions of said Estate, and further account between the said Estate and the Legatee of said James' Estate, which in accounts the Commissioner is directed to audit, state and report to Court, with any matter especially stated, deemed pertinent by himself, or which may be required to be so stated by either of the parties. And the Court doth further order that the said J. J. Goodenow executor, out of any funds in his hands, pay the Estate of James' Estate, pay the Court and also, in the case of Hapgood and wife, against James' Estate.

Ordered that the Court do adjudge, under the above report, the Court,

Geo. B. Scott.