

Thomas Miller son of John of Brown and against

Thomas Pittman

This Cause came on this day to be again heard on the papers formerly read & on the final report of John Briggs, Commissioner made under duress made in this Cause at the November Term 1874. By this Court, and after argument by Counsel, On Consideration whereof, the Court considering the facts, the merits, the evidence, both oral and written, that the former judgment herein be confirmed & made final & binding between the parties, and nothing more necessary to be done in this Cause, it is ordered that the record pass into the Exchequer.

John Lachford

Plaintiff

against
H. H. Briggs Esq. & personal representatives of John Briggs, late John Briggs, Morris Briggs, Nathan of Briggs & Wm. H. C.
Corbett & Ormes his wife

Defendants

This Cause came on this day to be heard on the Compliments heretaken for Compulsory as to add the Defendants, as (which process had been duly executed by them) still failing to appear & make defense, and on exhibits filed with said process, and after argument by Counsel, On Consideration whereof, the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that C. Commissioner of this Court proceed to take the following account. First an account of the Plaintiff's demand; Secondly an account showing the value of all debts and or personal or otherwise, which he has received from John Briggs, Morris Briggs, Nathan of Briggs & Ormes Corbett (and make reports to Court, with any matters respecting the same pertinent to himself, or that may be required by any of the parties, to be so heard.)

Castro Llewellyn Dwyllon

Plaintiff

against Stephenson's Committee &c

Defendants

This day this cause stood on again to be heard on the papers formerly read and was argued by Counsel: On Consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge, order and decree, that Wm. H. C. Should introduce from the papers in this Cause a list for two hundred and ten dollars and thirty three cents, received by James L. Bishop and John H. Bishop and did the do of James H. executing his receipt therefor to the Clerk, and after collecting that and the one he already holds, make a due and valid receipt in writing to James L. Bishop for the sum of two hundred and twenty seven cents of land formerly owned by Harold H. Stephenson and pay said sum to the Castro Llewellyn Dwyllon, and return his receipts along with his report in order to a further decree.

Henry S. Llewellyn

Plaintiff

against
The J. Lewis Sheriff & as such administrator with the will annexed of Henry H. Llewellyn late, John S. Llewellyn, David H. Llewellyn late in his own right

Defendants