In Chancery

This day this Court came to a further hearing on the report formerly read & the petition of Jacob Kello filed during the Term & was argued by Counsel. On Consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge, Order & decree, that a Commissioner of this Court, enquire & report to this Court, whether the debt reported heretofore as due L. C.
Galt as Jurisdiction for Margaret T. Vanzant, and wife of Jacob Kello, by J. H. Galt, by J. R. Rimes dated the November 1876, was for another Bond due by J. C. Galt prior to the passage of the Domestic Law, or not? And the Court doth further decree, that as request of the Deeds of May Term 1874, as directed E. L. Galt to distribute the amount realized from the Bonds of Robert Whitehead, be suspended, until the enquiry, above directed be made to Court, and that in City of their order be served on the said Galt.
