Guardian ad Litem, with genuine explanation thereon, & was argued by Counsel, the death of Francis C. Williams since the institution of this Suit having been suggested to the Court.

On the consideration, whereof the Council did certify, before and above, that George Whitefield, John B. Vick, Geo. W. Stephenson, & Geo. W. Vick, be & are hereby appointed Commissioners (any three of whom may act), to enquire into & report whether partition land be conveniently made of the tract of Land mentioned & described in the Compl. amount Bill, containing Two hundred acres, more or less, and divided in kind among the heirs of ^{John} George Whitefield, as fully shown in said Complaints Bill, and if such partition cannot be made conveniently (whether said Land may be allotted to any) party who may accept thereof, or otherwise to the other parties such share of money as shall be found therein may be sold there to, and if cannot be easily divided in kind or applied to any of the parties, whether the interest of the parties cannot be provided for by the sale of the whole, or an additional of part, and a sale of the residue, and report the said facts to Council, together with the evidence taken by them - With any matter which by them may be deemed pertinent by any of the parties.
