

if W. C. Virginia had done the accounts of the absolute & annual sales of its real estate otherwise, the said Virginia will be liable. Which accounts the said Commissioners have and are of report to Court together with any other matter appearing, stated claimed pertinent by himself, or required to be so stated by any interested party.

Defendant's against

Plaintiff's admiral et al.

Plaintiff

Defendant

In testimony

This day this cause came on again to be heard on the papers formerly read, and the reports of Commissioner Taylor of W. S. Goodwyn's transactions as executor of Samuel Dwyer, died, filed April 17th 1848, and also a legate account of the said estate filed at the same time and report the report of Commissioner Schell of W. S. Goodwyn's transactions as executor of Samuel Dwyer, died, and also a legate account of the said estate filed May 21st 1847, and to which reports no exception have been filed, and also a recommendation of a compromise agreed on by counsel for the plaintiffs and defendant mentioned, and signed by them, and was argued by counsel: on consideration whereof the Court without confirming the said reports their adjudge, order and decree that W. S. Goodwyn executor of Samuel Dwyer invest in registered bonds of the United States carrying six per cent. The sum of seven hundred and sixty eight dollars and thirty cents, the balance reported due in the account filed dated April 17 1848, taking the said bonds payable to himself as executor of Samuel Dwyer, and return the said bonds to Court along with his report. And it appearing to the Court from the same account of Commissioner Taylor that there is in the hands of the said executor on account of Salis R. Peifer two hundred and fifty five dollars and seventy four cents for investment, and also on account of Jos. S. Henry, C. and Co. Merchants, three hundred and thirty three dollars and sixty three cents for investment. The Court doth adjudge, order and decree that W. S. Goodwyn executor of Samuel Dwyer invest the said sum of two hundred and fifty five dollars and seventy four cents in his name as executor for the benefit of Salis R. Peifer in six per cent registered bonds of the United States, and that he invest the sum of three hundred and thirty three dollars and sixty three cents in his name as executor of Samuel Dwyer for the benefit of Jos. S. Henry, C. and Co. Merchants in like bonds and return all the said bonds to this Court - and being requested to the Court that an arrangement for a compromise of all matters in this suit so far as the children of John J. Kinard, are concerned, as well appears from statements received, and filed in the papers in this cause, the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that a Commissioner of this Court enquire whether in his opinion the arrangement of the compromise as proposed would be for the benefit of the said parties and report his opinion along with the return on which he has, appearing to Court, the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree that unless the plaintiffs shall file their objections to the said mentioned reports of Commissioner Schell and Taylor at the next term of this Court, the said reports shall stand confirmed without further order.