This day this cause came on to be further heard on the papers formerly made, the report of Comr. J. B. Simons filed Nov. 16 1878, reporting collection of all purchase money for land bought at resale by Wm. Beaton—the proper distribution of said, as evidenced by vouchers, the execution of deeds to Jno. Latham—on written direction of W. M. Beaton and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof—no exceptions being filed to said report, the same is hereby confirmed—and nothing further appearing necessary to be done in this cause, it is ordered to be removed from the docket—

3 In Chancery

This cause this day came on again to be heard on the papers formerly read and on the report of Commissioners Geo. W. Vick, Isaac B. Vick and Geo. H. Stephenson appointed at the May Term of this Court 1878 to which no exceptions have been filed, and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof the Court not confirming said report, doth adjudge order and decree that said Commissioners make a further report in which they are required to state more fully why the lands described in complainants bill cannot be divided in kind among the heirs of Spradly Simmons of whom the same may not be allotted to any of the parties who will accept it and pay therefor to the other parties each share of money as their interest therein may entitle them to, and if it cannot be better divided in kind or allotted to any of the parties, whether the interest of the parties concerned will be promoted by the sale of the whole or an allotment of part and a sale of the residue and report the said facts to Court together with the evidence taken by them and any matter that may be deemed pertinent by any of the parties—

Ex-parte Effie J. Hall by Wm. W. Briggs next friend—

This day Effie J. Hall having filed her petition by W. W. Briggs her next friend asking that Daniel Lewis be allowed to pay to her guardian W. W. Briggs the sum of $130. which had now owing to her guardian does for timber sold and delivered and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof
