

Accordingly said that it is filed by leave of Court, On Consideration where of the Court doth approve, Order and decree, that a Commission of the Court, Clerk & report a further account of the transactions of Henry Dilling administrator of the J. H. Dilling do. and of the debts including against the said Dilling's estate, by any third hand do, and that any other matter desired particularly by himself is required by any party interested to be so stated?

✓ John Dilling do
 against John Dilling, Peter Dilling & all

Plaintiff } In Chancery
 Defendant }

This Cause did this day again stand at the papers formerly read, together with the Report of Special Commissioner Thomas J. Nathan, which was duly filed in the Clerk's Office, and to which in caption there was filed that the Court Commissioning said Report, doth approve, Order and decree, and that the said Commissioner be and he is to collect from the said the Court doth approve of them, as the said Court may respectively see due; and that the said Commissioner may allow, the said provisions, or either of them, to anticipate the payment of any or all of said debts, that is, collect the said debts before they fall due, if the money should be demanded by the said provisions before the said debts fall due, and that as soon as all of the said debts shall be fully paid by the said provisions, the said Commissioner shall account to them, or either of them, & pay, in full, a sum or sums equal Special Commission for his real estate so paid whereby Henry Dilling, such separate attending said land as may be said unpaid, including the costs of this suit, and the said Commissioner is directed to report to Court, in Order to a further decree?

✓ Thomas J. Dilling
 against
 Joseph B. Dilling & J. Lewis

Defendant } In Chancery
 Plaintiff }

This day this Cause came on to be again heard at the papers formerly read of the account of J. Lewis filed during this term of the Court, & was argued by Counsel, On Consideration whereof the Court doth approve, Order and decree, that the Special Commission be and he is to collect from the Cause restraining J. B. Dilling (Executor) of the said J. Lewis from receiving the said land received by J. B. Dilling in said service for benefit of said Lewis, he and the said land in hereby dissolved, & that this Cause be dismissed at the cost of J. B. Dilling. But leave is reserved to said Lewis to prove upon the information that of said Lewis filed in the papers of this Cause, should the said Lewis fail to pay the costs of this suit.

✓ President Adams
 against
 R. A. Hunt

Defendant } In Chancery
 Plaintiff }

This day this Cause came on to be further heard at the papers formerly

1878
 11-92
 508
 1892

1877
 11-92
 11077