

Eliza B. Ughabart, wife of, A. B. Ughabart by J. H. Ughabart her next friend Plaintiff a gainst

Joseph H. Ughabart Exec of Eliza B. Ughabart and as Trustee for Eliza B. Ughabart Defendant

In Chancery

This cause came on to be this day heard on the Complaintants bill, answer of J. H. Ughabart Trustee, A. B. Ughabart Trustee affidavit of J. S. Morgan & J. R. Morgan & exhibits filed. And it appearing to the Court that the deed of bargain & sale from J. S. Morgan wife to A. B. Ughabart Trustee, made the 18th day of May 1872, & recorded in the Clerks office of this County on this County on the 9th of January 1875, contains trust & provisions not contemplated by the will of Eliza B. Ughabart & that said deed was made under a misapprehension of facts, it doth order, order & decree that said deed be set aside and a new deed be executed by J. S. Morgan wife so as to convey said property upon the following trusts, that is that the said tract of land is conveyed to said A. B. Ughabart Trustee, his heirs & assigns, upon this trust; that he shall permit E. B. Ughabart his wife to occupy possess & enjoy said tract of land free from all manner of charge & encumbrances or said A. B. Ughabart her said husband or any other husband & hereafter take, that upon this further trust, that the crops grown upon said land or proceeds of the sales of said crops shall in no wise be subject to the debts of said A. B. Ughabart, charging further appearing to be done in this case it is removed from the docket, with authority to be reinstated if the parties desire Ordered That the Court be adjourned until tomorrow morning 10 o'clock.

Wm. H. Shaw.