

26th November 1880, and the bond due to him from J. B. Briggs for $38⁰⁰ dated the 26th of November 1878 and due the 1st of November 1880 from the papers in this cause, and collect the same and on the payment of the said bond make to the purchaser thereof with Special warrant, and pay over the said money to the distributees entitled to the same, whose names and the amounts to which each will be entitled are set forth and given in the decree entered in this cause at the November Term 1878 and to which reference is here made for the guidance of the said R. W. Williams and return his receipts along with his report to the Court in order to a further decree.

Origin & Plaintiff } In balance against Defendant }

This cause came on this day to be again heard on the papers formerly read & the report of Commissioner J. W. Virginian to which no exceptions have been filed & was argued by counsel upon consideration whereof the Court doth confirm said report & doth order & decree that the bearer Bond of the State of Virginia, dated July 1st 1874, for one thousand dollars payable to J. W. Virginian be and is filed with his report among the papers in this cause, & that E. L. Stanton formerly Origin is hereby authorized to receive the annual interest thereon during her life and that another Bond of like amount & date remain in the papers in this cause & that Mary M. Harrison formerly Plaintiff receive & collect the annual interest thereon during her life and it is further ordered that the clerk of this Court pay over the several coupons attached to said bonds as they become due, the one to E. L. Stanton & the other to Mary M. Harrison, upon their order taking their receipts for the same & filing them with the papers in this cause.

John M. Clement & William Dick and Clement's infant children of Thomas J. Clement and Nancy his wife, suing by said Thomas J. Clement as their next friend, Plaintiff against Gustav A. Kinison Defendant
 This day this cause came on to be heard on the papers formerly