

W. W. Day, returns to the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that all members of this Court inquire and report to Court whether there is such a parcel of land in Grimesville County, how many acres in said parcel of land, and its proper and absolute value. The Commission will also state any other fact deemed pertinent by himself as required by any interested party to be so stated.

Ordered that the Court be adjourned until tomorrow morning at Ten O'clock.

Westbrook

Friday Morning May the 6th 1881

Present

The Hon. George Bloro Judge

Williams vs

Plff

In Chancery

Williford

Def

This day this cause came on to be heard on the plaintiff's bill the answer of the infant defendant Jacob F. Williford by his guardian ad litem and general replication thereto exhibits filed and was argued by counsel on consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that one of the Commissioners of this Court, pursuant to a return into and report to Court whether partition can be conveniently made among the parties of the tract of one hundred and ninety four acres of land lying in Southwestern County, whereof Samuel B. Williford died seized and possessed and if not in the interest of those who are entitled to the subject, as its proceeds will be promoted by a sale of the entire subject or allotment of part and sale of the residue or whether any one of the parties interested will take the whole and pay the other such sums of money as their interest therein may entitle them to together with any other matters specially stated deemed pertinent by himself as which may be required to be so stated by any of the parties interested.

Whitfield vs

Plff

In Chancery

Williams vs

Def

On motion of the plaintiff his bill is dismissed.

Rollings vs

Plff

In Chancery

against

Def

Adm

This day this cause came on again to be heard on the papers formerly read and the report of official Commissioners W. H. Applewhite of his making a deed to Anne E. Brantly made pursuant to a decree of this Court entered at the 100 term 1880 and to which report no exceptions have been filed and was argued by counsel on consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that the said report be confirmed and it appearing to the Court that there is nothing further to be done in this cause it is ordered that the same be removed from the docket.