In Chancery

Defendants

This cause was this day heard on the Bill, the answer of the said defendants, by their guardian ad litem, with replication thereto. And argued by Counsel: on consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge, under its seal, that Saml B Pettore, W H L Goodman, W L Noislett, W M Broome, & J R Edwards, three of whom may act) be & they are hereby appointed Commissioners for this purpose, that they divide into four equal shares on hand, if practicable, in their respective advantageous to the interest of the parties concerned, all of the real estate of which Henry L Cobb died seised & possessed (except that portion which has been assigned to his widow as her dower) into four equal shares in value having due regard to quantity & quality, and allot or assign one share to Richard H Cobb, one share to Caroline L Cobb, one share to Annie L Holland formerly Cobb wife of Abram Nor Holland, and the other share to W L Noislett to be held by him & his heirs by the entirety, for the term of his natural life, remainder in fee to his son Henry L Noislett. And if said Commissioners find it impracticable to allot or divide said estate in kind that they report giving their reasons therefor, And in any event they are ordered to report to Court.
