This day this cause came on to be further heard on the papers formerly read and the report of Comr. J. B. Prince filed Oct 20, 1881, to which there is no exception and was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof the Court doth confirm the said report, and doth adjudge order and decree that the sale therein reported be held firm and binding between the parties And the Court doth further decree that the said Comr. of sale withdraw from the papers in this cause the two bonds of Mary J. Williams for past each, with interest from Dec. 6, 1881. Collect the same as they become due or as the parties may desire to pay them, and when collected that he distribute the same among the parties entitled And when the whole of said bonds shall have been fully paid, the said Comr. will execute a deed with special warranty to the purchaser, and make report to Court.
