

estate of said J. W. Harrison to the amount of about $1000⁰⁰ at the time of the death of said J. W. Harrison and that there will not be due said J. W. Harrison from the personal representatives of said Inc. St. Harrison enough to pay what he owes to said estate. The Court is of opinion that the said Thomas Moore shall take nothing by reason of their said judgment, until the whole of the indebtedness due by said B. F. Harrison has been discharged, but that the same has been fully paid. then should there be any funds in the hands of the Court of sale, he will apply the same to the liquidation of the said judgment of said Thomas Moore. The Court doth further decree that the said Court of sale withdraw from the papers in this cause, the bonds of J. E. Bailey & J. B. Pope, collect the same as they shall become due and pay the same together with any balance now in his hands to the parties legally entitled, observing in his distributions of the share due B. F. Harrison, the above opinion of the Court, and the said Prince will report his proceedings to Court.
