Sept. 19, 1916.

Mrs. Mary W. Bishop,
Rich Square, N. C.,

My dear Madam:

We have your application for a pension on file in this office but find in the application that your address is Rich Square, N. C. This leaves us in doubt whether or not you are an actual resident of the State of Virginia or of North Carolina. We will be glad to have you inform us as to this by early mail. We must have this information before we can proceed further with your application received from you today.

Yours very truly,

JHS/DC.

Pension Clerk.
