Dear Sir

I am grateful to you for your kind offer which I have been waiting to thank you. This is the second time I have written to you in this strain with regard to my wife. You will see by her history that she has now been married to Mr. George W. C. and she resides at New Hampshire. She is a widow and she resides there with her son and daughter and she sends her regards to you.

My pleasure will be to do all I can for her. Her husband has been removed to Boston while she stays alone in the west. She is not very well, suffering from fever & chills, though no longer a sufferer, and no doubt will be soon out of difficulties. It will require time however before it will have to go. I also want to thank you for the information you gave ^{me} about the of having a house.

Yours truly
W. H. Franklin
