My Dear Sir

I am in receipt of your letter in regard to Mrs Mary Britt getting a Pension Mr Britt was called to go to war in the Spring of 1862 & some time during the Progress of the war Mrs Britt's husband was wounded & came home & was here for some time on crutches, and then he went back to the company and the next time I saw him was after Grand He surrendered I think the time he was at home wounded is why you could not trace him where abouts As to Mrs Britt's age I think is correct
