AFFIDAVIT OF COMRADES.

We, J. D. Gale and John P. Hall, do solemnly swear that we are residents of the City of Norfolk, in the State of Virginia, and that R. D. Brown whose name is signed to the annexed application for aid under the act of the General Assembly of Virginia, approved April 2, 1902, is personally well known to us, and that we have known him well for forty years, and that we were soldiers (sailors or marines) in the military (or naval) service of Virginia, or of the Confederate States, during the war between the United States and the Confederate States, and that the said R. D. Brown who was also a soldier (sailor or marine) in the said service during the said war, was, with us, members of (here state command and immediate superior officers thereof) Co. D. 4th Regt. Va. Artillery. Frank Hughes. Capt. J. M. John. and that the said R. D. Brown was a loyal and true soldier (sailor or marine), in the said service, and faithful in the discharge of his duties and that we verily believe he is disabled from the causes and in the manner in his application stated, and that his claim is just, and that we have no personal interest in the allowance of his claim under the said act.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, a deputy clerk, for the Corporation of Norfolk City, State of Virginia, this 13th day of March, 1906.

NOTE.—If only one comrade is living whose residence and address is known to applicant, let him make the above affidavit. If no such comrade is living whose address is known to applicant, then let one or more reputable persons who have personal knowledge of the services of the applicant and of cause of his disability, make the following affidavit:
