

Sebrell, Va.
Dec. 12, 1930.

Mr. E. R. Combs, Comptroller,
Department of Finance,
Richmond, Virginia.

Dear sir:-

This is to certify that after paying my taxes my entire income from all sources does not exceed one Thousand dollars ($1,000.00), and I trust that it will be your pleasure to allow my pention to go through which I applied for several months ago; provided, However, you think that as a loyal Confederate soldier I am entitled to such pention; otherwise I had rather try and make out some way without it.
