Mrs. James P. Whitfield,

My dear Madam:-

I am returning your application for pension, which has been acted on by the local Pension Board and Court, and which we find that in answer to question number one, you give your name as Maggie Harcum, but you sign the application as Mrs. James P. Whitfield. Please state in which name you are making application, and make necessary corrections in your application form. If your name is Mrs. James P. Whitfield, it should appear in answer to question number one.

Very Respectfully Yours.

A. B. Gathright, Comptroller,

By
Pension Clerk.

Gentlemen:-

Referring to letter above and to pension application returned herewith, my name is Mrs. James P. Whitfield, and the reason for the error is simply that the person filling out application for me, used my maiden name as the answer to question One, which has been corrected as requested

Very respectfully yours,

Franklin, Virginia
